Age Guidelines

- Children who are 2 years 9 months as of September 1, 2016 can enroll in a three year old class.
- Children applying to the four year old class should be 4 as of September 1, 2016 (exceptions can be made with the permission of the Director).
- Parents who would like to delay their child's Kindergarten entrance should choose the Transition Class. Children applying to the Transition Class should be 5 as of September 1, 2016 (exceptions can be made with the prior approval of the Director).
- Children applying to the Kindergarten who will not be 5 years old by September 1, 2015 should contact their local public school if they are planning to attend first grade the following year.

Application Process

- Please order your class choice by preference.
- Do not choose a schedule you will not accept.
- Your $75 application fee is refundable if we cannot offer you one of your class choices. However, we do not refund the $75 if we are able to accommodate any one of your choices.
- It is recommended that Kindergarten applicants who are new to Tower Day School submit a letter from their current preschool indicating the child's readiness for Kindergarten. This letter should accompany the application.
- Applications are processed in the order that they are received with present families given priority until January 8th. Parents are advised to return the form promptly either by mail or in person.

Enrollment

- Acceptance packets including class assignment, confirmation forms and tuition schedule will be mailed in a few weeks.
- Tower Day reserves the right to cancel a class due to insufficient enrollment.

Easing in Schedule

- The children in the three year old classes are eased into their schedule. They attend school one and a half hours the first day of school and the full three hours beginning on the second day of classes.
- The children in the four year old three and five day classes will attend school for one and a half hours on their first day and the full three hours beginning on the second day of class. The children in the full day class attend school for three hours on the first class day and the full six hours beginning on the second class day.
- The children in the Transition Class will begin their full schedule on the first day of class.
- Kindergarten children have a different schedule their first week of school in order to accommodate individual assessments. Those students will receive that schedule in June.
